

2022 Conference & Graduation

Greetings,

We are less than three months away from our conference and graduation. And what a joy it will be to see everyone in person. We have a great program planned that will feed your spirit, as well as your body with the wonderful banquet on Friday night.

Also, it is a great privilege to introduce our commencement speaker, Dr Alveda King. Not only will Dr. King be our keynote speaker, but she will also be graduating with an earned PhD from Aidan University. You can learn more about Dr. King below.

I encourage all our graduates to invite your friends and family to this exciting event. Remember, there is no charge to attend the graduation ceremony to celebrate your great accomplishment.

We'll see you there!

Grace & Peace,
Dr. Charles Travis

Dr. Alveda C. King is the daughter of the late slain civil rights activist Rev. A. D. King and his wife Naomi Barber King. Alveda is the grateful mother of six children and a doting grandmother. During the more than half century of her life, Alveda has worked towards her purpose of glorifying God on this earth by accomplishing many goals. Currently, Alveda is a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, serving as Pastoral Associate for the Civil Rights for The Unborn, Priests for Life.

Priests for life is headed up by Father Frank Pavone. She also consults with the Africa Humanitarian Christian Fellowship, founded by her mentor, Pastor Allen McNair of Believers' Bible Christian Church in Atlanta, Georgia. She is a former college professor, holding a Masters of Arts degree in Business Management. Her undergraduate studies in journalism and sociology helped her to become a published author, the most popular works being her best-selling books Sons of Thunder: The King Family Legacy, and I Don't Want Your Man, I Want My Own. This inspirational collection of Christian testimonies is used at conferences and workshops around the world. Alveda's Doctorate of Laws was conferred by Saint Anselm College. She has served on the boards and committees of numerous organizations, including the Silent No More Awareness Campaign, Coalition of African American Pastors, and the Judeo-Christian Coalition for Constitutional Restoration.

She also served in the Georgia State House of Representatives and is an accomplished actress and songwriter. During the years of the Civil Rights Movement, led by her uncle, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Alveda's family home was bombed in Birmingham, Alabama in the heat of the struggle. "Daddy's house was bombed, then in Louisville, Kentucky his church office was bombed. I was also jailed during the open housing movement," she recalls. Alveda has continued her long-term work as a civil rights activist, speaking out on issues that face society today. "I believe that School Choice is a pressing civil rights issue. Perhaps the most compelling issue of all is the life of the unborn," Alveda says. "Faith in God, and the commitment to fulfill His will for our lives -- not faith in government bureaucracy - is the key to positive action. Have faith in God!" This is the message that Alveda carries to the world.
